GENEVA PEACE WEEK PROGRAMME

14-18 OCTOBER 2024

“What is Peace?”

ABOUT THE GENEVA PEACE WEEK

Geneva Peace Week (GPW) is a leading annual forum in the international peacebuilding calendar through which organizations in Geneva and their international partners come together to share knowledge and practice on a diverse range of topics related to peace across contexts and disciplines.

GPW offers an opportunity to connect and highlight the work of peacebuilders and to expand the space for each and every person, actor and institution that has a role to play in building peace and resolving conflict. GPW recognizes that peacebuilding occurs in many different contexts and cuts across disciplines and sectors. In this sense, Geneva Peace Week breaks down professional silos in order to enable creative responses to violence, exclusion and insecurity. By synchronizing meetings and events on different topics related to the promotion of peace during one week, GPW maximizes synergies between organizations in Geneva and their international partners, focusing on the cross-cutting nature of peace.

Geneva Peace Week is a flagship initiative of the Geneva Peacebuilding Platform

GPW CONSORTIUM

GPW is a flagship initiative of the Geneva Peacebuilding Platform in collaboration with the following partners:

DCAF - Geneva Centre for Security Sector Governance is an intergovernmental foundation-based think tank that provides research and project support to states and international actors in improving security sector governance and reform.

The Geneva Centre for Security Policy (GCSP) is an international training center dedicated to promoting peace, security and international cooperation through executive education, dialogue and policy analysis.

The Geneva Graduate Institute is a higher education institution and a pioneer in the exploration of global issues. Through core missions – academic research, teaching, expertise and forum activities – they produce and share knowledge on international relations, development issues, global challenges and governance.

The Centre on Conflict Development and Peacebuilding (CCDP) is the Geneva Graduate Institute's focal point for research in the areas of conflict analysis, peacebuilding and the complex relationship between security and development.

Interpeace is an international organization for peacebuilding that supports locally led initiatives around the world.

The Principles for Peace is a global participatory initiative to re-frame the current narrow, exclusionary, and flawed way peace processes are understood and implemented.

The Quaker United Nations Office in Geneva represents Friend's concerns for global peace and justice to the international community.

Caux Initiatives of Change is an independent, officially recognized Swiss foundation, which organizes year-round programmes and events across Switzerland, specifically in the areas of peace, reconciliation, trust building and ethical leadership.

The Kofi Annan Foundation is an independent, not-for-profit organisation whose mission is to help build peaceful, democratic and resilient societies. It was founded and legally incorporated in Switzerland in 2007 by the late Kofi Annan, former secretary general of the United Nations.

The Geneva International Centre for Humanitarian Demining (GICHD) works towards reducing risk to communities caused by explosive ordnance, with a focus on landmines, cluster munitions and ammunition stockpiles.

The Federal Department of Foreign Affairs, is one of the seven Departments of the Swiss government federal administration of Switzerland, and corresponds in its range of tasks to the ministry of foreign affairs in other countries. The department is always headed by one of the members of the Swiss Federal Council.

The United Nations Office at Geneva, is one of the four major offices of the United Nations where numerous different UN agencies have a joint presence. Through partnerships between governments, civil society, research, academia and other international actors, UN Geneva works hard to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals by the year 2030.
